“My daughter and I have shared many things in our lives, including our alma mater, Clark College. Clark continues to impact our lives today. The Athletic Program is top-notch and Alison is now coaching youth volleyball, a sport in which she excelled at Clark and continued to play in Division I competition. The competitive spirit of Clark’s sports programs provides the entire community the opportunity to watch talented young student athletes reflect the best in teamwork and sportsmanship—skills that will serve them well in their future. I can attest to the fact that Clark’s academic and vocational programs have well prepared several of Riverview’s most productive employees.”

— PAT SHEAFFER,
Chairman/CEO Riverview Community Bank
