

February 20, 2014
For Immediate Release
For additional information contact:
Rhonda Morin, director of communications
Clark College Foundation
360-992-2705; rmorin@clark.edu
clarkcollegefoundation.org

Calling for Outstanding Alumni Award Nominations

Submissions for Clark College's Outstanding Alumni are open

VANCOUVER, Wash. – Nominations are open for Clark College's 2014 Outstanding Alumni Award.

Submit a nomination online or contact Vivian Cheadle Manning, director of annual fund and alumni relations, vmanning@clark.edu or 360.992.2104. The deadline for submissions is March 7.

The Clark College Alumni Association Outstanding Alumni Award recognizes Clark College Alumni for their exceptional service to the college, exemplary service to the community, and personal and professional achievements.

Michael Greenwood '61, a retired Clark mathematics professor and wrestling coach, took the accolade in 2013. Other past recipients include Sen. Al Bauer Jr. '55, Denis Hayes '64, Rico Selga '98 and Patricia Wirth '68, Ph.D.

The recipient will be honored at the annual Clark College Alumni-Student Dinner on June 3, in Gaiser Hall Student Center at 1933 Fort Vancouver Way in Vancouver, Wash.

The Alumni-Student Dinner is held annually to bring current Clark students and alumni together for an evening of networking and celebration.

Established in 1973, the Clark College Foundation is a nonprofit charity that serves as the fundraising partner of Clark College in support of student access to educational programs and services. It is nationally recognized for excellence in superior fundraising programs.

The Clark College Alumni Association reunites former students with the college and one another, provides alumni services and supports the college's mission of providing opportunities for diverse learners to achieve their educational and professional goals, thereby enriching the social, cultural, and economic environment of our region and the world.